

November 2019 NEWSLETTER

You might notice a bit of updating to our logo and Facebook, and we're working on a new website and a Facebook advertising campaign. Thanks to Amanda Main at 11-11 Marketing, and to Jenna for all your support!

We've also started emailing your payment receipts – please check that you're receiving them and remember to save them for your records.

Winter weather has arrived – remember warm outdoor clothes and boots, and lots of mittens. Also you will find the Well-Child Policy attached to this newsletter to help you know when to keep your little one at home – sometimes it's difficult to judge but please err on the side of caution to help keep us all healthy.

If you haven't had a chance yet, check out the new bulletin boards out front showcasing our wonderful team and lots of memories. If there are any special pictures you would like on the memory board please email them to rainbow.child_care@yahoo.ca
